

Friday May 24th, 2019

06:30 - 07:15	Rock the Harbour Passage - Take a walk/run along the scenic Bay of Fundy
07:00 - 08:15	Breakfast at Trade & Convention Centre
07:15 - 08:15	Registration
08:15 - 08:30	Welcome
08:30 - 09:45	Anything is Possible - James Mullinger Come and meet Saint John's favorite comedian and inspiration! Hear how life changed in Saint John.
09:45 - 10:15	Break and Exhibit Hall
10:15 - 10:45	We're Part of the Team Too! – Dr. Tushar Pishe Handover provides healthcare providers with key patient information but also carries a potential area of risk. Learn how EMS is standardizing patient transfers for NB.
10:45 - 11:20	Responding to Disaster, Are You Prepared? - Will Thomas Boaz & Miranda Lamb Unexpected mass casualty incidents have changed Emergency Nursing and we need to be prepared. Come and hear lessons learned from the incidents in Toronto.
11:20 - 11:50	ER-REBOA (Resuscitative Endovascular Balloon Occlusion of the Aorta) – Jeanesse Bourgeois, Dr. Andrew Beckett Come hear the latest in trauma care – ER-REBOA catheters. This lecture will review indications and contradictions, education, procedure, and challenges.
11:50 - 12:30	Design Thinking - James French Learn how to make your Emergency Department work for you. In this lecture Dr. French will explain and show examples of his work in streamlining equipment in the Emergency Department.
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch and Exhibit Hall
13:30 - 14:15	How to Avoid Becoming A Legal Case Study - Elaine Borg Attend this session with a nurse lawyer from Canadian Nurses Protective Society for a discussion based on Canadian cases that will help you understand how the law sees you and how you can help protect yourself. Come ready to discuss your questions.
14:20 - 15:00	Concurrent Sessions
	Track 1	Track 2	Track 3
	Panel Discussion - Disaster Planning and Education Rural and urban both have different perspectives and priority. Let's open the floor and share our pearls of wisdom.	The Shrimp or the Whale? Tales of Rural ED Challenges – Dawn Peta & Kristen MacKenzie Come see a typical day in the life of a Rural ED nurse. This session will not only be interactive but also provide a short review on current literature of Rural ED issues and solutions.	14:20 - 14:40 A New Way of Triage in Pediatrics - Cathryne Duquette & Naomi Singh A new way to triage pediatric patients? Come hear a novel concept and results from this large tertiary hospital. 14:40 - 1500 Feasibility of a nurse-driven analgesia protocol including methoxyflurane for trauma patients in the emergency department - Dr Maxime Maignan Come hear how a nurse driven protocol for analgesia that includes MEOF is feasible on triage.

15:00 - 15:15	Break and Exhibit Hall
15:15 - 16:00	Field of Dreams or Toxic Wasteland: The Choice is YOURS! - AnnMarie Papa Most of us spend close to half of our lives at work. What can we do to make the atmosphere more inviting? How can we promote professionalism and collaboration while eliminating negativity and frustration? Join us as we take a look at strategies that you can employ to help contribute to a healthy workplace, a positive career path and a happier you!
16:00 - 17:30	NENA Annual General Meeting
19:30 - 23:00	Social: Jubilee Cruise Terminal - 333 Water Street, Saint John

Saturday May 25th, 2019

06:30 - 07:15	Rock the Harbour Passage - Take a walk/run along the scenic Bay of Fundy
07:00 - 08:15	Breakfast at Trade & Convention Centre
07:15 - 08:15	Registration
08:15 - 08:30	Welcome
08:30 - 09:20	Toxicology - Dr. Paul Frankish What's more important? What my patient took or what is happening clinically? Dr. Frankish is going to help us answer this question!
09:20 - 10:05	Resuscitation Tonight with Allan Lai & Robert Paquin Late night television comes to NENA 2019! This presentation will showcase trending topics in resuscitation.
10:05 - 10:30	Break and Exhibit Hall
10:30 - 12:00	Concurrent Sessions
	Track 1	Track 2	Track 3
	10:30 - 11:15 New Hospital – New Choreography to Manage the Code Blue – Steve Gagne, Anne Bélanger, Carole-Ann Hébert Three Montreal EDs merge into ONE! Learn how a new process was revised from the way they welcome a patients... to the way they debrief.	10:30 - 11:15 All Guts, No Glory – Leadership Within The Remote Emergency Multidisciplinary Team - Brooke Davis If you have ever been interested in nursing up in the North...this talk is for you. Come and listen to Brooke discuss experiences and skills while nursing in the Yukon. #YESThisIsNursing	10:30 - 11:00 Building Compassion Satisfaction and Resiliency at NSHA: The Dartmouth General Experience - Heather Peddle Bolivar and Pam MacLean Patient acuity and volume have increased over the past few years at the Dartmouth General Hospital Emergency Department. In response to these stressors, a project was developed to introduce concepts of compassion fatigue and provide strategies to combat the associated symptoms
	11:15- 11:45 Moral Distress in Emergency Nursing: From Attribute of Attrition to Catalyst for Change - Jennifer Burkhart and	11:15 - 11:45 Interprofessional Rounds ICU-ED - Kalina Repin Admitted ICU patients in the ED? One facility has trialed	11:00 - 11:15 Process mapping the ED - Sarah Chagani

	Laura MacKinnon It's imperative to that nurses and nurse leaders learn to recognize moral distress and channel it into a positive catalyst for change. Let's change the moral climate of our workplace! 11:45 - 12:00 Influenza Vaccination During "Wait Times" in the Emergency Department - Noelle Ozog Come hear how a vaccination program could add value to the hours for patients waiting to be seen in the ED ONCE session is completed, please return to main lecture room	interprofessional rounds in the ED for these complex patients. 11:45 - 12:00 Haiti - An Unexpected Love - Cathy Davies Haiti experienced a catastrophic earthquake in 2010. Come hear how Cathy went to aid in 2010 but has gone every year since. ONCE session is completed, please return to main lecture room	We will hear how one department aimed to develop a process map of the ED and to identify factors that affect length of stay. 11:15 - 11:30 Chemical and Biological Mass Casualty Exposure: Is your department ready? - Meghan Ciotti Come learn the finer the details when dealing with Chemical Biological or Nuclear. 11:30 - 11:45 Patient and Staff Vulnerability - Julie Wuis ED Nurses are tough and can handle anything. Come hear why sometimes it's ok to let our guard down and be vulnerable. 11:45 - 12:00 Global Medication Performance (GMP) of inhaled methoxyflurane (MEOF) in adults with acute pain due to fractures, dislocations, contusions and lacerations: A sub-analysis of STOP – Dr. Patrick Dissmann Come learn more about inhaled methoxyflurane (MEOF) which was recently approved in Canada. ONCE session is completed, please return to main lecture room
12:00 - 12:45	Myth Busting: Common Misconceptions in Pediatric Emergency Nursing – Julie Bomba, Lea Ducharme, and Vincent Farquhar This session will focus on three case studies using a novel pedagogical approach called Virtual Pulse. The three case studies will focus on: Management of respiratory distress in pediatric patients; Top pearls to think about when caring for pediatric trauma patients; Review of some of the common cardiac conditions seen in pediatric patients.
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch and Exhibit Hall
13:30 - 14:50	The Maritime Kitchen Party - Landon James and Monique McLaughlin What would a conference in Atlantic Canada be... if we didn't have a chance to chat around the kitchen table? Landon and Monique will lead us and the panel in a wide range of topics. We will hear what's happening across Canada and enjoy a few good laughs.
14:50 - 15:10	Break and Exhibit Hall
15:10 - 15:45	Emergency Mental Health Care 101 - Kelsey Landsburg and Pam Devick In this lecture, we are going to receive clinical and practical management advice for psychiatric patients in the emergency department.
15:45 - 16:30	#Ethicscanbecool - Dr. Tim Christie Working with patients, emergency nurses have many occasions when they need to call on ethics to deal with difficult situations. Dr. Christie will lead us in a thought provoking discussion with some current hot topics with case studies.

Sunday May 26th, 2019

06:30 - 07:15	Rock the Harbour Passage - Take a walk/run along the scenic Bay of Fundy
07:00 - 08:15	Breakfast at Trade & Convention Centre
07:15 - 08:15	Registration
08:15 - 08:30	Welcome
08:30 - 09:00	2018 Heart and Stroke Guideline Update – Andrea de Jong
09:00 - 09:45	Is This Too Cerebral For You? – Janice Kenney We are going to put on our neuro thinking caps on as “LoopD” leads us in some clinical case studies and shares her wisdom of 20+ years of nursing on the neuro floor.
09:45 - 10:30	What is This I See? – Sheila Early This interactive session will help you identify what you see. Selection of case photos and scenarios will be presented. What they mean, how to document with forensic issues in mind. Learn how to spot the cases that may take YOU to court, coroners/MEs inquest.
10:30 - 10:50	Break and Exhibit Hall
10:50 - 11:50	Failing Forward for Success! - AnnMarie Papa Many of us have heard the saying "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again", and many other wonderful “tales” as we were growing up. This presentation will take some of the well-known and not so well-known adages, examine some high profile “celebrity stars” and help you to use humor as you develop your place in the world of Emergency Nursing.
11:50 - 12:00	Closing

Schedule and topics are subject to change if required